VETERAN FILM DIRECTOR I.V. SASI JOINS ALL LIGHTS INDIA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL (ALIIFF) AS FESTIVAL DIRECTOR

Sohan Roy - the founder director of All lights India International Film Festival (ALIIFF) officially declared veteran film director and a glittering personality in the Indian film industry I.V. Sasi as the director of the second edition of ALIIFF. The event will be held at Ramoji Film City, the world's largest film studio at Hyderabad, India from 24th to 27th Sep 2016.

I.V. Sasi has directed over 145 films in a span of 34 years. He is a recipient of National Award, four Kerala State Film Awards, six Filmfare Awards and the JC Daniel Award for outstanding contributions to Malayalam Cinema.

European Film Market wraps up another dazzling edition

European Film Market (EFM) was another success of the 66th

Berlin International Film Festival with a notable increase in number of participants in both market and the individual initiatives. With a lively exchange and plenty deal making, exhibitors and buyers enjoyed great interest. EFM's new platforms, 'Drama Series Days', 'EFM Startups', 'EFM Indywoodasia' and the 'EFM Producers Hub' grabbed immense interest. The third year of the Berlinale Open House and Berlinale Lounge Nights at the Audi Berlinale Lounge drew a large crowd. About 7200 visitors attended 30 events at the festival. Altogether, this year's EFM marked a good start to the year, providing strong momentum for the industry.

Talent Hunt

Next generation film industry talents are searched at international students level, found out and awarded at the Indywood Film Carnival. Talent hunt also aims to launch international co-production projects from India using Indian Talents.
